Give a Tax-free Distribution from an IRA Account

Individuals who are ages 70 1/2 or older may give up to $100,000 from their IRAs directly to Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church without having to count the distribution as taxable income. A part, or all, of this donation can count toward your IRA Minimum Required Distribution. There are specific legal requirements that must be met.

In 2015, President Obama signed the Protecting Americans from Tax Hikes (PATH) Act of 2015 which gives eligible individuals the opportunity to make tax-free distributions from IRA accounts to charitable organizations.

Always consult your own financial and tax advisors before making any gift that has tax implications.
